

ErgoExpo Announces Winners of 2016 Attendees' Choice Award

Las Vegas—November 29, 2016 - – Ergonomics and safety leaders gathered in Las Vegas for the annual National Ergonomics Conference & ErgoExpo, held at Caesars Palace on Nov. 15 - 18, 2017. With their biggest community of attendees and exhibitor representatives from all around the United States and 8 countries, the conference experienced the largest show-to-show increase in the event’s history.

“ErgoExpo is the perfect place to learn the latest trends, network with peers and grow your professional skill set to better your company,” said Lenore Higgins. “The event was a success and shows the continued innovation in the industry!”

The National Ergonomics Conference, which featured keynotes Woody Dwyer, MS, CPE, the 2nd Vice President for Workers’ Compensation, Risk Control, for Travelers; Dr. James Levine, MD, PhD, Professor of Medicine at Mayo Clinic; and Dr. Lynn McAtamney, CPE, Ergonomist at ATUNE, focused on equipping attendees with best practices and proven strategies to help build or improve their ergonomics, safety and wellness initiatives. Through more than 60 sessions and workshops, ErgoExpo attendees discovered fresh approaches, learned the latest trends, and received a complete “how-to” plan for implementing more productivity and cost-saving measures in their workplaces.

The educational sessions, developed by Professor Alan Hedge, PhD, CPE, David Brodie, MS, CPE, and Rachel Michael, CPE, CHSP, provided an opportunity for attendees to also earn valuable education credits from BCPE (Board of Certification in Professional Ergonomics) and BCSP (Board of Certified Safety Professionals).

An annual favorite, the ErgoExpo Attendees’ Choice Awards, was held during the 2016 event. Professionals voted for the new product they believe offers the best opportunity to increase productivity and profitability, while improving workplace health and safety. The top four highest vote recipients for new product were revealed live and received honors in the Neopolitan Ballroom Foyer on Nov. 18.

2016 Winners:

- Altwork with the Altwork Station
- BodyBilt by ErgoGenesis with the BodyBilt Aircelli ergonomic chair
- Magline, Inc. with their product LiftPlus™
- OM with their product Truly.™

Altwork, Magline and OM are first-time winners. This is ErgoGenesis’s fourth win.

“At this year’s Attendee Choice Awards we celebrated the remarkable accomplishments of some of the most innovative companies in the ergonomic industry. It was incredible to see all the new products that were release this year.”
